

LOCAL ALERTS FOR LOCAL EMERGENCIES

SoCoAlert is a robust, geographically specific notification system that will promptly alert and warn the public of local emergencies and actions to protect lives and property.

Register online at www.SoCoAlert.com or call (707) 565-1369.

What is SoCoAlert and why is it important to me? SoCoAlert is a free emergency notification service that provides Sonoma County the ability to notify residents by telephone, mobile phone, text message, email, and social media regarding time-sensitive, geographically specific emergency notifications.

When will SoCoAlert be used? Any message regarding dangerous conditions or immediate threat to personal safety or property will be sent using SoCoAlert. These may include evacuation notifications, shelter-in-place orders, boil water advisories, tsunami warnings, and flood warnings.

What should I do if I receive a SoCoAlert message? Listen carefully to the entire message and follow the instructions given. Go to SoCoEmergency.com to get emergency updates and the latest information.

How to register. Visit SoCoAlert.com to register online. If you prefer to register by phone, call (866) 939-0911 or (707) 565-1369 and speak to a communications specialist to complete your registration. You can, and should, include home, mobile phone, work phone, and email. Your information will only be used when Sonoma County first responders are making authorized emergency notifications utilizing SoCoAlert.
